Hotel Man Commits Suicide.
Wilmington, Del., Sept. 24.—Merritt B. Furry, proprietor of the Railroad House, was found dead in his room during the day. Firmly inserted in one of his nostrils was the end of a rubber hose connected with an open gas burner. Furry had been indicted for selling liquor on Sunday and suborning a witness and his trial was to have taken place this week.

Domestic Burns to Death.
Milwaukee, Sept. 24.—E. Schultz, forty-five years of age, a domestic in the employ of C. J. Luther of Whitefish Bay, was burned to death. Miss Schultz was filling a burning lamp, when the kerosene exploded, the burning oil setting her clothes on fire.
She ran out and rolled on the grass to extinguish the flames, but died before assistance arrived.

Mill Employes Organizing.
Minneapolis, Sept. 24.—Delegates to the International Flour Mill Employers' association spent the day in completing the finer details of their new organization, which when completed will include the flour mill employes of the United States and Canada. Permanent officers of this new and powerful organization will be elected.

Twenty Years for Murder.
Olathe, Kan., Sept. 24.—Bessie Hickland, who murdered a twelve-year-old boy at Wilder last July and who was found guilty of murder in the second degree a few days ago, has been sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary.

Kills His Brother in Mistake.
Wausau, Wis., Sept. 24.—Andrew Arment was shot and instantly killed by his brother, John. They were out hunting and John mistook his brother for a deer.

Several Papers Read at Employers and Employes' Convention.
Minneapolis, Sept. 24.—The second day's session of the employers and employes' convention in Minneapolis was well attended.
Among the most interesting papers presented in the morning at the university was the one by Frederick W.
Job, chairman of the Illinois state board of arbitration. He selected as his subject "Arbitration From the Point of View of an Arbitrator." Herman Just spoke on "Arbitration, Its Uses and Abuses."
At the afternoon session in the Exposition building State Labor Commissioner John O'Donnell acted as chairman. John Bates Clark, professor of economics at Columbia university, spoke on the subject, "Is Compulsory Arbitration Inevitable?" About 1,500 people assembled at the Exposition building and listened attentively to Elizabeth C. Wheeler, social secretary of the Shepard company, Providence, R. I., on the subject of "The Opportunity of the Social Secretary."

GERMAN MATCH INDUSTRY.
American Competition Brings It to the Verge of Ruin.
Berlin, Sept. 24.—The German match making business, in which about $8,750,000 of capital is invested, has been brought within measurable distance of ruin by the output of the American Diamond Match company's new factories near Mannheim. Matches that six months ago were sold from the German works at $20 a case are now selling at $16 a case or $1 below the cost of production by the old fashioned process. The Diamond company uses machinery from the United States. Their German branch has been in operation for five months, and it always sells at prices below the offers made by the old companies.

ABANDONS WESTERN TRIP CHIEF EXECUTIVE CARRIED TO HIS TRAIN AND IS RETURN-ING TO WASHINGTON.

Indianapolis, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt's Western trip came to an untimely end in this city during the day. He was found to be suffering from a swelling in the left leg between the knee and the ankle that required immediate surgical attention, and instead of being taken to the train to continue his journey to Fort Wayne and Milwaukee, he was conveyed to St. Vincent's hospital, where he was operated upon. The operation occurred at 3:45 o'clock, and lasted only a short time, when he was taken to a private room in the hospital to rest.
After taking a light luncheon at 7:50 p. m., he was conveyed on a stretcher to his train, which had been backed up on the "Y" near the hospital, and the train left for Washington.

The first intimation that anything was wrong came in the form of rumors to the great crowd that was patiently waiting around the Columbia club and the soldiers' and sailors' monument for the president to appear. It was about 2:30 o'clock, half an hour after the time set for the president to leave the hotel that a few favored ones in the crowd received intimations that the president was sick, and that the rest of the trip would probably be abandoned. These statements were promptly denied as fast as they gained currency, but soon the rumors began to take on a more serious character.

"The president has burst a blood vessel" was a whisper that went around among the police officers and soldiers.

"This cannot be true," said others,
"for the president is in the corridor conversing with Senator Fairbanks."

Then it was said that the president was sick, that he had fainted, and finally a rumor was started

That He Had Been Shot.

These rumors, however, did not appear to reach the crowd, and the thousands stood patiently after the speech by the president from the balcony to see him make his way out of the club. The minutes began to slip away, and still he did not come. A half hour or more passed, and finally it was noticed that a movement of some kind was on. The president's carriage stood in front of the entrance of the club with Colonel Wilson, the governor's private secretary, inside holding the large bunch of American beauty roses that had been given the president in the hall. The soldiers of the national guard were drawn up along the street just in the rear. The secret service men and the local police and detectives crowded the sidewalk in front of the club, keeping back the people. The command was given to make room, and a path was cleared from the club entrance to the carriage, and as if in answer to the rumors of his illness, the president, accompanied by Senator Fairbanks, with a quick and sturdy gait, came down the steps of the club, and hastily entered the carriage. The carriage started immediately, the horses being urged into a trot. A second carriage containing the secret service officers, followed closely in its wake and a third one, containing Assistant Secretaries Loeb and Barnes, and Drs. George J. Cook and J. J. Richardson, closed up the rear. No sooner had the carriages started than Captain Callon of Battery A, with twenty mounted artillerymen and Captain Hyland with as many mounted police, surrounded them, and in a few seconds the cavalcade swung at a rapid gait down Meridian street.
For three squares along South Meridian street the carriages and escort went at a good gait, distancing those who attempted to Keep Up With Them by Running.

Finally the depot was reached and a slight delay arose in crossing the tracks because of a train that was about to leave. The engine was stopped as it started on its way across the street, and the carriages went galloping over the tracks and onto South street. The crowd that had gathered at the east end of the depot looked upon this maneuver with wonder, but the carriages turned sharply to the east on South street and in a few minutes the distance of several squares to the St. Vincent hospital was covered. As soon as Captain Hyland of the police arrived there he alighted, and running to the door of the president's carriage, which had stopped, he assisted him to alight and walked with Senator Fairbanks and Governor Durbin up the steps of the hospital. The occupants of the third carriage quickly followed, and at the same time Captain Callon had stationed his men about the entrance, and a squad of police who had been sent to the hospital before the president left the club appeared and formed a cordon about the building. Everything was done with dispatch, and the gathering crowds were kept at a distance. No one was allowed to enter the hospital except those belonging to the president's party, or those who had special business there. From the time the president left the Columbia club until he found himself in a hospital surrounded by a cordon of police and soldiery not more than ten minutes had elapsed. The whole movement

Had Been Carefully Planned.
In the Columbia club before it was carried out and the utmost effort was made to keep any inkling of what was to occur from reaching the street.
The necessary orders to the police and soldiers were not given until the last moment, and in this way the knowledge that something was amiss was confined only to those who had an official interest in the president's movement. Dame rumor did not have an opportunity of arousing the anxiety of the thousands of people who were gathered along the streets, and the transfer of the president to the hospital was executed without their having the least notion of what was transpiring. The first public knowledge of the true state of affairs came in the form of a bulletin which was issued by Secretary Cortelyou, and in a short time the newspaper offices were the center of excited crowds.

After the president entered the operating room with the physicians he sat down on a stool and waited for instructions from the physicians and surgeons, watching their preparations with keen interest.

"I am awfully sorry that I cannot continue my Western trip," said he.
"Can't you let me go ahead with it after this thing is over?"

Several of the surgeons turned to him and one said:

"It is my opinion that you would be very indiscreet to continue on your feet as would be necessary in your speechmaking trip, after the operation. This is by no means a serious thing and there is Absolutely no Danger of serious consequences from it if you are careful and stay off your feet until the trouble is over. But you should by all means, Mr. President, discontinue your trip."

"Very well, then, it will have to be that way," said the president resign-edly. "I will do as you gentlemen say. Now, what do you want me to do?"

The president was told to remove his shoes and stockings and nether garments. He also removed his coat and vest. A moment later, however, he was told to simply remove his shoes and they would be required to bare the leg only. This was done.
The president walked to the operating table alone.

The operation began without delay.
The pain caused the president to mutter several times in a low voice, but he said nothing that was distinct except to ask for a glass of water before the needle had been removed.

After the operation was over, he made several laughing remarks concerning trivial matters.

After being taken to the upper room from the operating room the president was served with a light luncheon and chatted pleasantly to those in the room. He made several kind remarks to the nurses about the trouble he was causing and shifted his position several times nervously.

At 7:40 p. m. a white blanket was thrown around him and he was placed on the hospital stretcher and escorted by a company of infantry, was carried to the car, a block away, by four negro porters from the train. He bade goodbye to the nurses as he was being carried out of the hall to the elevator and

Thanked Them for Their Kindness.
He did not talk during his trip to the car. Senator Fairbanks, Governor Durbin and other prominent citizens were at the train to bid him goodbye.

The swelling of the president's leg which made an operation necessary was occasioned by a bruise he received at the time of the trolley car accident at Pittsfield, Mass., when the president's carriage was run into and demolished by a car. Besides being injured in the face and across the eye, the president at that time received a blow upon the inner part of the left leg between the ankle and the knee, but through his characteristics he paid no attention to it, ignoring it as being a slight bruise not worth talking about. For several weeks he took no heed of it, but finally it began to pain him so as to enforce his attention. After starting on his Western trip he determined that perhaps Dr. Lung, who was aboard the train, should examine it. The doctor did so and pronounced it to be a serious matter. When in Detroit the doctor finally declared that something would have to be done. After consulting with Dr. Richardson, another member of the party, it was decided that in order to avoid the possibility of blood poisoning it would probably be wise to have an operation performed.

CON. O'BRIEN,
221-223 SOUTH BROADWAY.
PRESIDENT RESTING EASY.
Is Suffering Less Pain in His Leg Since the Operation.
Richmond, Ind., Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt's train arrived here at 9:50 p. m. The president was resting easy and the wound on his leg shows no ill effects of the trip from the hospital to the train. On the contrary the president suffered less pain than he has for several days. He passed the time during the run here in reading.
He is cheerful and is lying in bed with his leg propped up on a pillow.

REPORTED BY CHAFFEE.
American Troops Defeat the Moros and Take Several Forts.
Washington, Sept. 24.—The war department has received a cable dispatch from General Chaffee dated Manila, Sept. 22, in which he says:
"Captain John J. Pershing, Fifteenth cavalry, left Camp Vicars Sept. 13 with battalion of infantry; troop of cavalry and platoon mountain battery.
Marched towards Pimig, nine miles southeast of Vicars, and in that vicinity took three forts at Ganan; 19th visited Itayubas, took two forts; 20th marched northward to Sanir, took two forts. Has communicated with two sultans. Maciu still obstinate. Perishing fired on frequently when approaching Sanir, no loss of our troops.
Moros report their loss twenty-five killed. Maciu about eighteen miles northwest Vicars.
"Brigadier General Samuel S. Sumner instructed to limit the use of firearms as much as possible and not to destroy property, the object being to obtain promises of non-interference with our troops in the future. General

THE Aitkin Age has again changed hands, C. H. Warner, the former publisher, again becoming proprietor.
Few contests among themselves at the primaries was one of the strong points exhibited by the democrats. The leaders carefully selected the candidates and the rank and file of the party had little if anything to say as to who they should be.

Up in Roseau county, where Albert Berg was defeated for renomination to the legislature, it rained election day and it is estimated that 400 voters were prevented from going to the polls and voting on that account. It is not stated whether an attempt to throw out the vote on this account will be made or a contest started, but you can't tell.

THE republicans of Itasca county have nominated a former Brainerd citizen, George H. Spear, for county attorney, and their selection is, undoubtedly, a wise one. Mr. Spear is an honorable gentleman, a bright lawyer, and will look after the interests of the up-river county in an able manner. There is no question as to his election, at least there should be none.

As was expected the St. Cloud Times, a democratic paper which was industriously busy previous to the primary election in advising republicans to vote for the Litchfield candidate for congress, now takes the task upon its shoulders of endeavoring to induce every Foster republican to vote for the democratic candidate, making a furious onslaught on C. B. Buckman. This was anticipated and while every democratic paper in the Sixth district will endeavor to instill discord and strife it does not necessarily follow that their efforts will avail. The republicans have nominated Mr. Buckman in as clean a campaign as was ever carried on in the state of Minnesota and they will elect him. The democrats are so worked up over the outcome that they are willing to adopt any method to create dissension. The republicans of the district will work united to elect their nominee, and the same would have been the case had Mr. Foster been given the certificate. The close vote will naturally cause some feeling, but the republican voters will not lose sight of the fact that a republican congressman must be elected.

DONAHUE-BURNS NUPTIAL EVENT

At St. Francis Church This Morning Was Largely Attended By Friends

YOUNG PEOPLE WELL KNOWN

They Leave for a Brief Wedding Trip—Will Be at Home After Nov. 1

"Happy the bride the sun shown on," If as the bard wrote there is a degree of happiness from this source the bride of this morning's nuptial affair at St. Francis, Miss Mary E. Burns, certainly has a full measure, for everything, even nature, vied to make the event a most happy one, the morning being especially beautiful, the sun shining brightly with a clear blue sky and a refreshing autumnal breeze, just enough to fill the air with invigorating stimulus, swept gently down through the azure colored leaves of the trees.

The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Edward J. Donahue to Miss Mary E. Burns, brought out a large crowd at St. Francis church. The wedding occurred at 9 o'clock with all the pomp of the beautiful Catholic wedding service, the music for the occasion under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Early being especially fine. Promptly at 9 o'clock the wedding party entered the church. They marched down the center aisle toward the altar, Mr. Henry P. Dunn and Miss Nora McInerney leading the procession. They were followed by Miss Sadie Reilly, maid of honor. As the party started down the aisle Mrs. J. P. Early, who presided at the organ, played Lohengrin's wedding march. The groom accompanied by Mr. Thos. Burns, brother of the bride, met the bride at the altar.

Three little flower girls preceded the bride down the aisle. They were the little Misses Madeline Murphy, Marie Adair and Alice Murray. They were handsomely gowned and presented a very neat appearance. The bride leaned on the arm of her father, Mr. Thomas Burns, and as the party formed at the altar it presented a very beautiful scene. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and after the first part of the mass was sung took their seats in front of the altar. The beautiful mass was sung, Rev. D. W. Lynch being the celebrant, and during the ceremony the choir sang Peter's Kyrie, "Sanctus", Leonard's "Angus Dei", Mrs. H. Theviot and Mrs. J. P. Early sang Ave Marie, by Lambillotte, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Early rendered "O Salutaris".

The bride was handsomely attired in a French monsetine gown with satin trimmings, point lace yoke and bertha, with satin girdle and collar. The gown was one of the most beautiful ever seen in this city and the bride looked the charming personage she is. She carried in her hand a cluster of beautiful bridal roses, pure white.

The maids of honor were attired in gowns made of white organdie over white silk, and Miss Sadie Reilly carried a cluster of yellow roses, while Miss McInerney carried a cluster of pink carnations.

Masters Eddie Burns and John Burns, two brothers of the bride, served the wedding at the ceremony. Mr. James J. Nolan and Mr. James Maloney acted as ushers at the church. The service over, the wedding party accompanied by a few intimate friends of the family gathered at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns, where an exquisite wedding breakfast was served. Here the many presents which were sent to the happy couple were exhibited and the rooms presented a sumptuous appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Donahue are both well known in this city. The bride has been a popular music teacher here for years and is the daughter of one of the most prominent families on the north side. The groom has made his home here for many years, and is at present bookkeeper and confidential clerk for the wholesale firm of Cleary, McGinnis & Hemstead in this city.

The happy couple left this afternoon for the Twin cities for a short sojourn, with the best wishes of all showered on them. They will be at home at 314, Ninth street north after November 1.

CHANCE TO GET A MAIL ROUTE

Postoffice Department Issued an Advertisement Inviting Proposals For Carrying Mail

THE ROUTES IN THIS VICINITY.

Some New Features are Incorporated Which it is Thought Will Work Much Good.

The Postoffice Department has issued an advertisement inviting proposals for carrying the mails on all star and mail messenger routes in Minnesota for the term of four years commencing July 1, 1903.

In this advertisement two new features are incorporated, viz: limiting bids to those persons who will agree to reside on or contiguous to the routes on which service is performed and to give their personal supervision to the same, thereby placing the service in the hands of local men, so they may receive the entire amount paid by the department. In the same advertisement is also incorporated the feature of delivering the mail into boxes along the routes. Full information relative to the conditions under which such delivery can be made may be obtained from any post master. The following is a list of routes in this vicinity:

Esdon to Deerwood, 15 miles, and back, three times a week, present contract $158.59.

Lake to Deerwood, 8 miles, and back, three times a week, present contract $124 for twice a week service.

Emily to Cross Lake, 12 miles, and back three times a week, present contract $95 for twice a week service.

Brainerd to Cross Lake, 32 miles, and back, three times a week, present contract $383.96, sub-contract $325.

Mission to Merrifield, 13 miles, and back twice a week, present contract $250.

St. Mathias to Brainerd, 11 miles and back six times a week, present contract $121.58 for three times a week service, sub-contract $110.

Shepard to Brainerd, 14 miles, and back, twice a week, present contract $107.58, sub-contract $100.

Proposals for these routes will be received at the office of the Second Assistant postmaster general, Washington, D. C., until 4 p. m., Dec. 2, 1902.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

ROYAL ITALIAN BAND TONIGHT.

Tonight the Royal Italian band will be the attraction at the Brainerd Opera House. This is a treat that Brainerd people have been looking forward to for a long time. The band arrived from the south and they are a magnificent looking organization.

They start on their tour this season the most magnificently uniformed body of musicians that ever crossed the continent. Mr. Ellery was determined that the uniforms worn by his 55 men should correspond in perfection with the music they produce, and consequently he spared no expense in fitting out the band. The men are uniformed in dead black cloth suits, cut in military style close to the figure. The Cavaliere Emilio Riveia, the titled director of the Ellery band, will be costumed in white velvet and gold in almost the same design as the above. He is becoming known as "The Leader in White". People in other cities are beginning to call it "The black and gold band, with the leader in white". Seats on sale at H. P. Dunn & Co's drug store.

For forty years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been curing summer complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, pain in the stomach, and it has never yet failed to do everything claimed for it.

SCHOOL EXHIBITS ARE A MARVEL

Crow Wing Fair Opened Today and by Tomorrow Everything Will be in Shape.

AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITS GOOD.

Fair will be Open Three Days and Many Farmers will be in During the Week.

The Crow Wing county fair opened this morning, and many farmers arrived early with their exhibits. Today the officers of the association are busy classifying the exhibits and getting them in shape. The exhibit of fancy work by the ladies of the city and county is especially fine and this alone will be worth the time spent to go down to the grounds at Swartz driving park.

The exhibits from the schools of the city are in shape and they are certainly marvelous. The work is that of young children in the first and second grades of the city schools and considering their age the work borders on the miraculous. An unique idea was struck in the manner in which the exhibits have been arranged. Each school in the city has a miniature building at the art hall on the grounds and the furnishings of these houses are the handiwork of the children. The carpets are of their own weaving, the chairs are manufactured by them out of paper, the bed clothes are made by their tiny fingers and every other little bric-a-brac about a house.

It is a marvel and the work is sure to draw much attention. This alone does not consist of the school exhibit. Pupils in other grades have on exhibition their work in drawing, etc. The work in drawing is especially attractive, considering the fact that it is the result of only two weeks work. Miss Carrie Minich, the drawing teacher, particularly, should be given great credit for this feature. The work of the fourth and fifth grades, such as painting leaves from life, is very attractive. Then there are some water color paintings, the first ever attempted in the schools in this city, all from life. All the work on exhibition has been done since school opened this year and it would do the parents of the city good to see it.

There is a very good assortment of agricultural products at the grounds and when they are properly arranged they will make a good showing for Crow Wing county.

Good suits for $5.00 and $6.00, but we have some dandies at $15, $18 and $20. These are hand tailored. Glad to show you any time. 92 LINNEMAN & CARLSON.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know" writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cts. Satisfaction guaranteed by McFadden's Drug Co., and H. P. ## THE "NORTH COAST LIMITED" of the Northern Pacific which, in its two seasons of service has justly obtained the reputation of being the "Crack Train of the Northwest," was again placed in commission May 4, 1902.

This train replaced trains 11 and 12 and the twice-a-day through train services is maintained as heretofore.

The "Limited" runs between St. Paul and Portland, via Butte, Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma as in previous years, and is electric lighted, steam heated and vestibuled.

New, modernized Pullmans, the most advanced type of Tourist Sleeping Cars, new Northern Pacific Railway Dining Cars, the usual fine equipment of regular Day Coaches, etc., and crowning all, the superb Observation cars of the Northern Pacific Railway at the rear of these trains, all together form a train unexcelled anywhere. It is worth something to see the Northwest on a train like this. Passengers having paid for first-class Pullman berths have the privilege of the Observation car and its fine library and reading room Free, others holding first-class tickets pay a small fee for the privilege.

This train carries the east-bound Yellowstone Park travel and the Park Pullman during the Park season, May 30 to September 15th.

LAST SPEECHES OF TRIP

INDIANAPOLIS PEOPLE LISTEN TO ADDRESSES BY THE PRESIDENT.

VERY SINCERE RECEPTION

Veterans of the Spanish and Civil Wars Hear the Chief Executive Talk at Tomlinson Hall, After Which He Speaks to the General Public From the Balcony of the Columbia Club Amid Great Enthusiasm.

Indianapolis, Sept. 24.—President Roosevelt was accorded a reception by the people of Indianapolis during the day that was sincere, enthusiastic and entirely lacking in partisan bias. Men of all political faiths united with one accord in doing honor to him.

For miles along the line of march thousands of people massed the sidewalks and waited patiently for the passing of the presidential party.

In accordance with instructions from Chief Wilkie, of the secret service bureau, the entire line of the parade was roped off and at intervals local bluecoats enforced the orders of Chief of Police Taffee to see that the streets were cleared of pedestrians and vehicles. The president's train was half an hour late. It was scheduled to arrive at Noble and Washington streets at 11:20 a. m., but it was nearly 12 o'clock before the train bearing the nation's chief arrived.

President Roosevelt was met at the station by Governor Durbin, who was accompanied by Mayor Bookwalter, Senator Fairbanks and nearly thirty members of the reception committee, the personnel of which included many of the most prominent citizens of Indianapolis. The escort consisted of a squad of mounted police, a battalion of the Second regiment, Indiana national guard, and the members of the Indianapolis light artillery. In the carriage with the president were Secretary Cortes, Governor Durbin and Mayor Bookwalter.

The line of parade was banked with people. Women predominated, and in response to continuous applause, the president lifted his hat time and again. For at least an hour before the president arrived Tomlinson hall was filled. In the galleries were thousands of ladies, chiefly in white, who made a scene at once picturesque and panoramic.

The floor of the hall was evenly divided between the veterans of the Last Two Wars of the Republic.

On the right, facing the stand sat the men who fought in '98 and on their left were the heroes of '61. This division presented an interesting study. The men of the great war, bent, crippled and grizzled, but still patriotic and full of fire, chatted across the narrow aisles with lusty youngsters who had helped strike the shackles from suffering Cuba. But irrespective of all of them stood for a common sentiment—union forever.

The crowd in the vast hall was fast growing impatient when the boom of cannon fired in the courthouse square, announced that the presidential procession had started for the hall. A moment or two before Commander Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Merriam fame, had been escorted on to the stage and was recognized by the vast assemblage. At once there were cries of "Hobson, Hobson." The naval officer arose and bowed. But the crowd was not satisfied. Again and again his name was shouted. Unable longer to ignore the repeated calls for a speech, he arose and thanked "those who had named him."

Soon the advance guard of those who had accompanied the president over the line of march began to appear on the stage. General James B. Coryell, commander-in-chief of the Spanish-American war veterans, was the first to advance to the reserve seats. He was closely followed by Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, Admiral Brown, Judge John H. Baker, James Whitcomb Riley and other distinguished men. Governor Durbin and Mayor Bookwalter in brief addresses welcomed the president to the city and state. Senator Beveridge then formally introduced the president. The president was Received With Deafening Cheers. Women in the galleries stood up and waved their handkerchiefs. Veterans young and old yelled lustily.

When President Roosevelt had concluded his address the audience arose en masse and cheered him time and again, the cheering being led by General Coryell, who waved a great bunch of American beauty roses in order to mark time.

Carriages were then taken to the Columbia club. From Tomlinson hall to the club there was a continuous round of applause. In front of the club an enormous crowd was banked around the foot of the monument. The crowd was made up chiefly of ladies, who waved their handkerchiefs and clapped their hands.

The carriages emptied their contents into the club. The president and invited guests were taken to the parlors on the third floor.

After the luncheon President Roosevelt made an address to a great throng of people from the balcony of the club. The balcony was decorated with the national colors.

The president was introduced by Senator Fairbanks. The enthusiasm was great and it was some time before the president could begin his address.

When the president concluded he was heartily cheered. It was not until after 3 o'clock when the president left the club and drove to the hospital for the operation. All down Meridian street President Roosevelt received a most cordial welcome, the crowd being ignorant of the fact that they were cheering a sick man on his way, not to the depot as they supposed, but to the hospital to undergo a painful operation.

ENCOUNTER OBSTACLES

AMERICAN TROOPS PREPARING TO TAKE A FORMIDABLE MORO STRONGHOLD.

WILL ATTACK ALL SIDES

Natives Have a Fort on an Eminence Surrounded by a Swamp and the Building of a Bridge Is Necessary in Order to Make an Assault—Reinforcements May Have to Be Sent. Message From Chaffes.

Manila, Sept. 23.—Captain John J. Pershing of the Fifteenth Infantry, operating against the Moros in the island of Mindanao, has found the Moro position at Macin, island of Mindanao, to be strong, and has delayed his attack on it. He must throw a pontoon bridge across a swamp and possibly receive reinforcements before engaging the enemy. The captain made a reconnaissance close to the Moro position and found a fort on an elevation, close to the lake shore, flanked by swamp, virtually making the promontory an island. The Americans built rafts preparatory to attacking the Moros from the lake and then decided to bridge the swamp and make an attack from all sides. The sultans of Macin regard the position as impregnable and have refused to treat with Captain Pershing. Brigadier General Samuel S. Sumner will send the Moros an ultimatum demanding peace and the return of stolen property. If his demands are rejected the place will be assaulted. Captain Pershing has carefully examined the position and its surroundings and is confident of his ability to capture it without serious losses. Captain Pershing has returned to Camp Vicars, from whence he reports that the sultans of Macin alone are hostile in that section of the Lanao country.

Jay Cooke Seriously Ill.

Toledo, Sept. 24.—Jay Cooke, the Philadelphia financier, who is at his summer home at Gibraltar, near Put-in-Bay, suffered an attack of passive congestion of the brain during the day. Other members of the family were on the lake fishing. The nurse heard a fall and entering Mr. Cooke's room, found him on the floor in an unconscious condition. Medical assistance was summoned and his condition is improved.

IN A NEW PLACE.

Reported the Colombian Revolution Shows Renewed Activity.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The Colombian revolution has broken out in a new place, according to information received at the navy department. An American fruit company transmitted to Secretary Moody a cablegram from its agent at Santa Marta, a place on the north coast of Colombia near the mouth of the Magdalena river, saying that conditions there were very much disturbed, that the telegraph and railroad communication had been interrupted, and requesting the department's attention. The dispatch was sent at once to the state department and our consul at Barranquilla, a place near Santa Marta, was called on for an immediate report concerning the situation.
